Darlines, I am wester pholog -Thefaws fall somes my way : I can hardly see the lining Of the class - he allver lining, Turning darkness into day.

I am weary of the aighing, Mouning, wailing through the air, Bredding hearts in angulah crying For the lost ones-for the dying; Sobbing anguish of despair.

I am weary of the fighting : Brothers red with brother's gore Only that the wnosn were fighting-Taura and Honon's battle fighting-I would draw my sword no morn.

I am pining, dearest, pining For your kisses on my cheek: For your dear arms round me twining ; For your soft eyes on me shining : For your leved words, darlings-speak! .

Tell me, in your exmest prattle. Of the olive branch and dove : Call me from the cannon's rattle Take my thoughts away from battle; Fold me in your dearest love.

Darlings, I am weary pining; Shadows fall scross my way; I can hardly see the lining Of the cloud-the eliver lining. Turning darkness into day.
